

MONTENEGRIN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES AND ARTS
Department for economic science and Department for demography and anthropology

ROUND TABLE
“Population data sources – methodological approach”

AGENDA

1.	Veselin Vukotić, PhD, President of the Department	Introductory words
2.	Pieter Everaers, PhD, Deputy Director, EUROSTAT	Modern methods for development of population census – methodology of EUROSTAT
3.	Gordana Radojević, PhD Director, MONSTAT	Population census experience and other demographic sources in Montenegro
4.	Apostol Simovski, Director, State Statistics Office of Macedonia	Methodological and organizational problems of development of population census in Macedonia
5.	Danilo Dolenc, Manager of Department for demography and life conditions, State Statistics Office of Slovenia	Improvement of methodology of development of population census in Slovenia
6.	Baiba Zukula, Deputy-Director of Department of methodology of social statistics, Latvia	Methodological problems of population census in Latvia
7.	Mirjana Rašević, PhD, IDN, Beograd	The link between population census and population policies
8.	Milica Kostić, PhD, CANU	Demographic sources as a basis for research
9.	Maja Drakić-Grgur, PhD, UDG	Demographic aspects of economic development in Montenegro

Discussion will be held in Montenegrin Academy of Sciences and Arts, on 23rd of April 2018. at 10:30h.

Discussion will be held in languages of the Balkan region and English.

Discussion will last no longer than 14:15h.

President of Department for demography, anthropology and economic science

Veselin Vukotić, PhD